HARD GAME TO LOSE

Toledo Wins It After a Neck-and-Neck Race.

Only Four Hits Off Phillips While Indianapolis Bats Rettger for Eleven and Outfields the Visitors.

Old Reuben Hardluck played with the Indianapolis team yesterday and was very largely responsible for the defeat. It is extremely doubtful if during the entire season there will be another game won on four hits and three errors as against eleven hits and two errors for the losers. The Toledo men had no license to win, but the fact remains that they did so, for they managed to get four runs to three for the home team, and it is the runs that count, Phillips pitched a great game. There is considerable comfort in that. He was away off on the recent trip, but the moment he struck Hoosier soil he seemed to recover his old-time effectiveness. With the able assistance of umpire Kerins he managed to crowd all four of his bases on balls into one inning, a fact that contributed two runs to the gentlemen from the swamp New York men scored again in the eighth lands around the mouth of the Maumee river. It is in order to remark right here that Kerins is not likely to last more than a few weeks as an umpire. He has been appointed to the vacancy caused by the dropping of Mitchell, who was ousted by the votes of the four Eastern clubs. If Kerins keeps up his work of the past two games here his career will be short. He expects to judge balls and strikes by standing some fifteen feet back of the catcher when the latter is taking them off the bat. and makes a mess of it, each side getting a dose of the bad work. Yesterday Indianapolis had a shade the worst of it, especially when he counted hard in that fatal third inning. Kerins doesn't inspire much confi-dence either, being frequently a little slow in his decisions.

Phillips was splendidly supported yester-day. Two of Leidy's catches were beauties and McTammany took one from Hatfield's bat in the seventh after a hard run toward the fence that brought down the bleachers and the stand. Phillips fielded his position in clever shape and stopped two hard hits in a way that earned him much applause. In a way that earned him much applause. The hitting and fielding of Mills was one of the features. He has had his eye on the ball lately to the extent of two and three safe hits each game. Saturday he had four and yesterday three. Westlake's backstop work was clean throughout. For Toledo Gilks had some nice chances in left that he looked after successfully, and the infield work was of the gilt-edged sort. Rettger used his need to good effect and was helped used his head to good effect and was helped out by his support and considerable luck. McFarland is doing all Toledo's catching, and it needs no improvement.

Neither team did any damage in the first, but in the second, with one out, Indianapolls made a strong bluff at scoring. Mills hit safe, but was caught at second on a steal, very foolishly refraining from sliding to the base and bowling Connor over as he could have done. Westlake got a base on balls and Phillips sent him around to third on a hit to right, which Summers fumbled. After Carney and McFarland had each dropped high fouls by Plock, Rettger became disgusted and gave him his base on balls, filling the bases. Here was a golden opportunity, but the best McTammany could do was a grounder to Niland, who threw him out at first. In the last half, with two out, McFarland made the circuit on a clean four-base drive to right center. The next man was easily disposed of from Gray to Plock. Graham led off in the with a single to left, but was doubled with Gray on the latter's grounder to Con-Leidy hit to right for three bases, but

Henry went out from Hatfield to Carney.

The third was a bad inning for Indianapolis. Retiger started the Toledo half with a safe hit to left and stole second. Hatfield went to first on balls, and Gilks's sacrifice moved them up a base. Miller's long fly to McTammany scored Rettger, and Hatfield came in on Carney's single to center. Phillips then gave Connor, Summers and McFarland bases on balls, forcing in Carney with what proved to be the winning run. Niland hit to Mills, who threw Mc-Farland out at second. In the fourth inning Indianapolis came pretty near pulling out the game. Mills started the ball rolling with a hit to left and Westlake followed with a grounder to Connor, which took a peculiar bound, allowing him to reach first. hillips hit safe to center and Mills scored but Westlake, who apparently thought Miller would throw to the plate, tried to make third, and found the ball waiting for him when he got there. But for this the score would have been tied and the game probably won. Plock got his base on balls bagger to left sent in two runs. At this stage Toledo had a piece of great luck. Graham hit a liner which went right into Hatfield's hands, and the ball was fielded to second before McTammany had a chance to get back, this double play retiring the

After the third inning Toledo did nothing with Phillips, getting no one beyond first base and only three men as far as the initial bag. Mills led off in the sixth with another safe hit and Westlake moved him along with a sacrifice, but Phillips and Plock flew out and left him on second. In the seventh, with two out, Gray got a base on balls and Leldy a single to center, but Henry, who had a great chance here to win the game, struck out. With two out in the eighth, Phillips hit to left for a base, but Plock was not equal to the task of helping him around, and struck out. With one out in the ninth, Graham went to first on balls, and there was a glimmer of hope, which was almost instantly extinguished by Gray's hitting to Niland, the result being a double play which ended the game. The attendance was 1,000. Score:

LAST GAME TO-DAY. Indiauapolis Goes West To-Night for

Two Weeks-Cross and Murphy.

The game this afternoon will be the last on the home grounds until Decoration day. Gayle and Snyder will be the Indianapolis battery, while Hughey and McFarland will officiate for Toledo. Hughey is the ex-Brooklyn pitcher whom Toledo recently signed. The game will be called at 4 o'clock. The Indianapolis team leaves tonight for Minneapolis, where they open the Western series on Thursday. Friday is an off day, and the boys will probably go to Stillwater for an exhibition game. Saturday and Sunday they play at Minneapolls, and then go to Sloux City for three games. From there they go to Kansas City, and thence home for morning and afternoon games Decoration day. Milwaukee will not be visited this trip, because the ciub has five Sunday games scheduled there later, thus splitting the series in such a way as to make it unnecessary to stop on the pres-

Cross and Murphy will probably join the team while away, the latter before another week has passed. An effort was made to secure Canavan, of Cincinnati, but Comisky would not let him go, and is now playing him regularly. Manager Sharsig raceived a final telegram from Comisky yesterday, saying he would hold on to Canavan. There may be some news of a cheering nature in the next few days, however. Long, who is at the head of the Toledo club, had the Associated Press representa-tive there send out an attendance of 11,000 at Sunday's game. There were just 3,900 paid admissions, and the other 8,000 were the product of Long's fertile imagination. The attendance was all right, and there was not the slightest call for swelling it to such enormous figures, or at all for that matter.

Philadelphia Defeats New York 5 to

4 in an Eleven-Inning Game. PHILADELPHIA, May 14.-The Philadelphia team downed the Giants to-day in one of the closest and most exciting games of the local season. With the score a tie at the end of the seventh inning it looked as if a single hit might turn the scale. The and that put the Philadelphias on their mettle. In the ninth Delehanty brought the score up to a tie again and from that on it was a battle to the death. The local team played fine ball, but the Giants excelled in several ways. In the first part of the game there was considerable kicking against umpire Stage, but in the last innings the crowd went wild. Attendance, 7,965. Score:

Edward Edes Questioned Again Concerning Various Money Transactions.

NEW YORK, May 14.-Edward Edes, former assistant secretary and treasurer of the Oregon & Transcontinental Company, was again on the stand in the Northern Pacific inquiry to-day. Referring to his statement made on Saturday that $400,-000 cash had been paid on account of the purchase of the Chicago, Harlem & Batavia Railway Company, he said he had found a check for $200,000 of that $400,000. which was made payable to Charles L. Colby or D. S. Wegg, but he could not find the check for the other $200,000, as it was in another check book, which had been mislaid. He did not know who actually got the money for that check for $200,000. That money was paid out by the Oregon & Transcontinental company, acting as the financial agent for the Wisconsin Central Railway Company. He did not know whether the Oregon & Transcontinental company, as financial agents, ever acquired the station property in Chicago.

Mr. Pettit quoted from the witness's letter, in which he reported that the company had arranged for the purchase of the station property, and asked him on what he based that statement. The witness said that he obtained the information from Mr. Hoyt, president of the Oregon & Transcontinental company, who undoubtedly satisfied him at the time that such arrangement had been made, Mr. Edes said $2,790,458.34 was paid for the Chicago Great Western Railway Company. Of that sum a check for $2,515,458 on the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company was given to Colby, Abbott & Hoyt. A check for $375,000 was also given to the same persons, which latter check included $100,000 on account of the purchase of the Bridgeport & South Chicago Railway Company. Besides that $100,000, two notes for $375,000 each were given on account of the Bridgeport & South Chicago Railway Company. All the notes mentioned were paid in cash when due, checks therefor being given to the Chicago Great Western Railway Company. The two notes for $575,000 each were paid, with interest, by check to D. S. Wegg for $1,174,916. The Oregon & Transcontinental company did not pay anything for the Chicago Great Western Railway Company other than the $2,790,458 already mentioned. He could not find any other payments on the books, and he did not believe anything more was paid. Charles T. Barney, formerly a Northern Pacific director, testified that he considered the lease of the Wisconsin Central a favorable one. He had objected to the payment of a commission of 2½ per cent, and five shares of stock on each $1,000 bond. Mr. Oakes was strongly in favor of the Northern Pacific going to Chicago, and his impression was that Mr. Villard was also, and the consensus of the opinions of all his railroad friends was in favor of it. The proposed lease appeared to be the best means of getting there. He had no inter-

Electrocuted in Auburn Prison for the Murder of Detective Harvey.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 14.-Lucius P. Wilson died in the electric chair in the penitentiary in this city at 12:43 p. m. today. At his own request he was photographed in his cell. All through the morning he preserved an unruffled demeanor. He refused to see a clergyman.

Wilson's crime was the murder of Detective James Harvey, July 31, 1893, in Syracuse. A burglary committed the previous month had been traced to him, his brother Charles and a third man. Detective Harvey was shot through the head as he was attempting the arrest of the Wilsons. Officers and citizens pursued the men and captured Lucius (or Dink) Wilson. Charles Wilson was not taken until two weeks later, when he was found in Buffalo and captured after a desperate resistance. The two men were identified as members of the Hudspeth-Slye gang, who committed the Glendale train robbery in Missouri, three years ago. They had also made records for themselves as burglars and all-round desperadoes in Omaha and at other places in the West. Which of the brothers that fired the shot that killed Detective Harvey was not an issue in the trial, the law under which Lucius was convicted providing that where a person en-gaged in committing a felony kills another he is guilty of murder in the first degree, though premeditation and deliberation be not shown. The men, having been arrested for a felony, were committing another felony in escaping at the time Harvey was shot. Thus it may be that Charles Wilson, who is still awaiting trial, may also suffer the death penalty for the murder of the detective. His record is, if possible, worse than that of his brother. Wilson's statement was made public this afternoon. It declared that Charles Wilson, now confined in the Onondaga county jail on joint indictment with the writer, is a brother, and that he is entirely innocent of the charge. He says that Charles was not the man who was with him when detective Harvey was shot. Another note was addressed to Chief of Police Charles R. Wright. It said: "Please deliver all articles found on my person at the time of my arrest to my brother, Frank L. Wilson-guns and everything." To Frank he sent the following note: "Take things as cool as possible and try not to grieve more than is necessary. Tokens to the folks."

Fantasy May Beat Nancy Hanks,

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 14.-Budd Doble was asked what he though of Fantasy's mile in 2:24, with the last half in 1:05, last week, and replied: "It is wonderful. To my mind it presages her as the supreme factor in reducing Nancy Hanks's record of 2:04. It means more than it seems on its face. If done with some other trainer than Geers it might have but little significance, but when you take into consideration his ability and conservatism, it means that the filly went well within herself, and if she can this early go a half in 1:05 well within herself, what a world of speed she must have. Great things can be expected of her."

The horses at the track are in first-class condition. Not one has been sick this spring. Budd Doble has twenty-five, Geo. Starr twenty-five, Thomas Dickerson seventeen, Hawley Cole five, S. J. Fleming seven, Warren Park eighteen, William Dickerson eight, John Jackson five and W. H. Boyce twelve. New ones are arriv-ing every day. Hickok is expected in the next few days.

The first race of the season on the track was between Mr. Deming's pacer, Cousin Joe, 2:224; Paul Kuhn's T. N. B., 2:194; Fred Smith's Marlowe, 2:154, in a half-mile dash to road wagons. T. N. B. won in 1:124, which is the fastest time on the track this year.

Thinks Clifford Will Be Beaten. W. H. Benton, the sporting writer known as "Rob Roy," is in the city with the Creedon combination. He says that Creedon is very anxious for a mill with Fitz-simmons or Hall. Mr. Benton, speaking of the Brooklyn handicap, the great turf event to be run to-day, thinks that Clifford, the famous Western horse, will be beaten, and that the race lies between Ajax and Dr.

Princess Colonna in New York. NEW YORK, May 14.-Princess Colonna. John W. Mackay's stepdaughter, arrived in this city yesterday from California, in her special car. She was accompanied by her children and her brother, who met the car at Chicago. She was driven at once to her father's apartments at the Belgravia. She and her children are in the best of health. They will remain here a few days, and then the Princess will go to London and spend the season with her mother. The children will remain here, and the mother will, it is said, return in the autumn and make her permanent residence here. Double Tragedy in a Street. KEOKUK, Ia., May 14.—Jacob Dygraff, an insurance agent, killed his wife and himself to-day. Several weeks ago his wife obtained a divorce. Dygraff met her on the street to-day and pleaded for a reconciliation. She refused, whereupon he drew a revolver. She started to run, and he fired four shots into her back, killing her instantly. He then placed the revolver to his own head and blew out his brains. The Only Kindergarten Souvenir Healing Without Medicine. Prof. A. D. Fritz, the man who gives such popular "Random Talks," and heals the sick and crippled by the laying on of hands, gave his first lecture yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at Washington Hall, which is located next to the Park Hall, which is located next to the Park Theater on Washington street. His talk was highly entertaining, and perhaps never was our people more thoroughly surprised than at the most remarkable cures which were performed. He made the deaf hear and the paralytic, lame and crippled throw away their canes and crutches and walk and dance about the stage as if they were but boys and girls again. The Prowere but boys and girls again. The Pro-fessor will continue to lecture and heal the sick and crippled every day this week at 2:30 o'clock. Admission is free, and all who wish to witness these most miracu-lous cures should go early in order to get good seats, as the hall is sure to be packed. Half Rates. To all points in Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, southwest Missouri, points in Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana and Tennessee, May 29.
